On the gray-tinted background of autumn-hazed sky
A tree swirled in flame-color, copper and green,
A symbol—a memory of days passing by—
The valiant promise of life's future scene.

Yes, beauty dies. The sleet and frost
That mask the school at wintry dawn
May melt by noon. But is beauty lost
If we still have dreams when the ice is gone?

See—yellow leaves are circling slow, studding with gold the blue-gray air.

The summer's breeze is gone; strange winds their challenge blare,

And the brave will meet this challenge of beginning and of ending—

How symbolic of the future are these yellow leaves —descending.

Life like a picturesque gypsy, lifts her crystal ball
Fused from the green-gold springtime, flecked with the red-gold fall.

And we, as we stand on her threshold, seeking this old-young seer,

With silver cross her palm and breathlessly wait to hear.

FEATURES

In the moment of time just before a radio program goes out from the microphone of the school station, W.T.A.D., many are the thoughts, hopes, and memories which the participants in the program feel. In the moment just before the presentation of this, the seventh issue of the Pot O' Gold, we wish to voice some of our thoughts, hopes, and memories.

The purpose of our R.C.A. Public Address System, W.T.A.D., is to present its programs in the very best style; our aim is to present the program of DeVilbiss life in the best possible way. May this book serve as a memento of the vari-colored school life you have enjoyed during the past year. May the school it represents serve as an integral part of your preliminary preparation for the greater undertaking—Life. When the first words of a broadcast flash out there is much to remember concerning the foundation of hard work, pleasure, and enthusiasm on which every program is built. Here, too, in these first words we hope you will find the satisfaction gained from remembering a hard task well done; pleasure, not only in the book itself, but in your thoughts of the past and the future; enthusiasm for what is to come. The 1939 Pot O' Gold —Standing By.

Faculty

Today the best of music, oratory, humor, and drama passes from tall towers rising above far-flung cities over the air-waves to millions of homes. Behind this seeming miracle is the hard work, the intelligence, and the perseverance of the man in the control room. There is one man in DeVilbiss High School who fully deserves this title, the man who directs the kaleidoscope of DeVilbiss school life—Merritt C. Nauts.

In each of the many facets of the school we can see the reflection of his unceasing efforts, his skill in guiding the lives of DeVilbiss students. At his fingertips he keeps the knowledge of the complicated mechanism behind the activity at DeVilbiss just as the man in the radio control room manages the entire activity of the broadcasting studio.

Mr. Nauts has under his able control the thousand and one things which are not apparent to the casual observer—the correspondence with colleges, the arrangement of programs such as the concert series, and participation in P. T. A. work; just as his counterpart in the broadcasting studio must be responsible for a great many diversified tasks.

Our leader does not cast himself as the chief character of the script of school life, but the efficiency, the colorfulness, and the human-ness of DeVilbiss High School would be greatly lessened were it not for Principal Merritt Nauts—the man at the controls.

OUR GUIDING

LIGHTS

A capable and understanding director DeVilbiss certainly has, but DeVilbiss can also be proud of those who help him in his work—the faculty. The man at the radio controls is aided by the heads of each separate division of the studio, the script, engineering, and production managers; Mr. Nauts, too, has the assistance of the teachers whose cooperation and support contribute a great deal to the success of the high school curriculum. We, as students, sincerely appreciate their sympathy, understanding, and ability in improving the production of the program at DeVilbiss.

First Row—Miss Grace Kratz; Mr. Merritt C. Nauts; Miss Mildred Pasch.
Second Row—Mr. Louis J. Mathias; Mr. Arthur Diller.

Radio listeners know that much of the success of a program is due to the proficiency of the technicians. It is in their competent hands that every program is shaped and maneuvered into a clear, concise, finished product. We in DeVilbiss are fortunate in having capable technicians who strive diligently throughout the year to form and polish our personalities.

The animated individuality of Miss Mildred Pasch lends itself well to the position of dean of girls. As an excellent electrician in the affairs of our lives, she has wisely and understandingly relieved and stabilized conditions of "school static." She has won for herself the respect and esteem which her position merits, and has established with the feminine portion of our student body a strong bond of confidence.

Mr. Diller's record as dean of boys parallels that of Miss Pasch in pep and popularity. He is constantly on the alert for the cue which will promote the best interests of all who seek his advice, and his common sense and frankness help him to handle any situation tactfully.

The niceties of school etiquette when typified and presented by Miss Grace Kratz, Dean of Classes, earn and hold the interests of her listeners. Combining her obvious talent for good form with a cheerful disposition and boundless energy, she has proved to be a likeable adviser in her classes and in outside work. As director of programs, she skillfully presents to students details which are not included in the regular curriculum.

Mr. Louis Mathias, Director of Activities, finds his work complicated, but apparently enjoys it nevertheless. As master of ceremonies, he provides a varied program selected for the diverse interests of the listeners. His willingness to cooperate with and to take part in school affairs makes Mr. Mathias a real friend to all who come in contact with him.

Such are the qualities of those persons who are concerned with the problems of every individual at DeVilbiss. Their fitness for their parts in this program has caused students to offer their names for leading roles in the grand finale of a big broadcast.

With the efficient help of all the engineers, technicians, and the other members of the mechanical staff, the cast of a radio program is able to interpret the varying moods and shades of emotion of the script. So it is at DeVilbiss. We have a mechanical staff to set the scene for our cast—the four classes—the Dramatis Personae of this radio program.

The seniors have completed their final rehearsal, have played their parts in the DeVilbiss cast expertly, and are now ready for different assignments. A new studio is waiting, a new goal is in sight; they will soon be broadcasting over a larger network. The juniors and sophomores, who have concluded an intensive schedule of preparation, are about to appear as the leading characters of DeVilbiss. Those students who have finished their initial audition, who have played "bit" parts well, are now just on the threshold of success; but they too may be relied upon to supply an important part in the unceasing cycle of progress.

WE, THE PEOPLE . . . the voice of DeVilbiss speaking through its senior class . . . Other doors will open and close for us soon, but we will always remember the four years of mingled pleasure and hard work, topped by this year, to which we all looked forward with enthusiasm, and upon whose passing we look with regret . . . This is perhaps the shortest year of all . . . "The Night of January 16th" long will represent an exciting spot on our radio log . . . "Guilty or not guilty?" was the decision which faced the student jury in this thrilling drama . . . The Senior Midwinter Dance was a gay night . . . The gym—so cleverly decorated with palm trees under a sky of midnight blue; on Treasure Island—the treasure chest, brimming over with a very delicious kind of gold . . . Capturing the very mood of the season, the senior girls entertained their mothers at a tea as delightful as spring itself . . . A little later the senior boys enjoyed a memorable evening with their dads at the annual Fathers' and Sons' Banquet . . . Of course the quintessence of perfection was the Senior Prom, where lovely ladies in colorful frocks danced with tuxedoed gentlemen . . . The Senior Banquet, followed by the Junior-Senior Farewell Dance were equally important formal functions . . . Then . . . the most impressive occasion of all—the presentation of our diplomas at the graduation exercises the following evening . . . And so, with these flashes, we leave you . . . We, the people—speak . . .

YOUR HIT PARADE

JOE COLLINS

MARGERY STALER

JOAN METCALF

Station WTAD announces YOUR HIT PARADE . . . listen to the chant of the DeVilbiss student body . . . we think our school has housed the cream of the crop of all high school pupils for years, so doubly good must be the "big ten" leaders of the class of '39 . . . scholarship, leadership, and personality are the basis of the selection . . . by independent experts, seniors who know their class the best, the choice was made . . . the novel way of introducing the "hits" this year is by way of the alphabet . . . and here it is DeVilbiss . . . YOUR HIT PARADE . . .

EVELYN LEWIS

TOMMY BROWN . . . has easily won his way to popularity through slight exertion of his invigorating individuality . . . an asset to the school and community . . . JOE COLLINS . . . known scholastically as number one man in the Senior class . . . likes nothing better than an extensive bird hike or a day in a room full of good books . . . JOE CLIFFORD . . . universally termed a "swell" fellow . . . enjoys participating in dramatic functions . . . feels equally comfortable in social circles and class room . . . SUZY LEHMAN . . . makes up for her small size by doing big things in her effective way . . . quietly assumes responsibility . . . watch for her in the future . . . EVELYN LEWIS . . . heart and soul for the Friendship Club . . . represents the ideals of this organization . . . likes athletics and is a "letter girl" . . . JOAN METCALF . . . capably executes any tasks given to her . . . finds time for the piano and violin . . . has an even temperament in spite of her red hair . . . TED MICHELFELDER . . . well-liked leader of the student council . . . his varied interests well qualify him for this position . . . his sense of humor is admired by all . . . MIDGE STALER . . . finds no trouble in making and keeping many friends . . . successfully edited this year's Pot O' Gold . . . a lot of fun and intelligence characterize Midge . . . MARGIE URSCHER . . . energetically works for the numerous activities that occupy her interest . . . has the true appreciation of art . . . and likes to draw . . . BOB WEISER . . . a math "brain-truster" . . . and favorite among DeVilbiss students for his friendly personality and ability to carry projects through to successful completion . . .

Your senior hit parade is over for another year . . . be waiting for the chant of the DeVilbiss student body . . .

JUNIOR CLASSES

ALBERT JAMRA President
CRAIG DALTON Vice-President
ABBIE SHEARER Secretary
HOMER BOGART Treasurer

First Row—Craig Dalton, Abbie Shearer. Second Row—Homer Bogart, Albert Jamra.

STANDING BY . . . We, the Junior Class, are ready to take over the network when the seniors have signed off . . . We have been waiting, but we have not been idle . . . Our initial activity, an afternoon dance, the preview of what was to come . . . Then sure, if it wasn't the green we were wearin' at the Shamrock J-Hop on Saint Patrick's Day . . . whist, we'd be sayin' nice things about that dance even if we'd never heard of the blarney stone . . . Then, with all the sparkle of the lights on Broadway, came the junior play . . . "The Butter and Egg Man" . . . a success from the first curtain to the last bit of applause . . . Following this lead was the Junior-Senior Farewell Dance . . . a little bitter-sweet in its memories of the past—its plans for the future . . . This was the last event of a successful year . . . We are looking forward now . . . so the microphone is yours, sophomores . . . Take it away.

MARY L. McKNIGHT Secretary

CONSTANCE PHOTOS Treasurer

ON THE AIR . . . In no uncertain manner have we entered into the planning of our program, now that our second year has come and gone . . . Our big dance, the Sophomore Prom, set the pace as our first real participation in the DeVilbiss broadcast . . . snatches of melody, fragments of laughter and gaiety are captured in memory's book, to be part of us forever . . . With the passing of another scholastic year our network of acquaintances has widened and we have benefitted by these friendships . . . To our teachers and advisers, who have worked diligently to clear the air lanes for us, we are deeply indebted . . . To our class officers, our sincere gratitude for their capable leadership . . . Tucked back in our minds we shall keep a place for these souvenirs—but with our recollections we will keep as our goal, greater responsibilities, more diversified presentations . . .

RECORDINGS . . . we as freshman entering DeVilbiss faced its spacious halls and busy students in much the same way as the novice faces a new broadcasting studio . . . the courtesy shown us by our fellow students encouraged us to listen attentively and interestedly to announcements of what was to come . . . We believe that we successfully achieved our standard in the "Greenhorn Gambol," an afternoon dance with novel favors—our debut over the broadcasting waves of school life . . . we were quite proud of the way the upperclassmen looked around in an approving manner . . . We tried to take advantage of records left us by past classes . . . to spice our recordings for the future with new ideas, new names, new faces . . . To play our parts, even though they may seem to be bit parts, to the best of our ability has been our goal . . . We feel that we have attained that goal . . . and in the future we shall keep our promise to devote ourselves to developing and perfecting our programs into a polished broadcast.

Organizations

“Presented regularly for your enjoyment” . . . thus are introduced sustaining programs . . . those which present human interest stories . . . tales of tragedy, comedy, pathos . . . tracing the life of an individual and showing how that life is affected by other persons and events . . . In DeVilbiss, there are extracurricular activities supplying to DeVilbiss students this color and picturesqueness . . . organizations which weave their contributions into the very fabric of the school . . . build traditions as monuments to the casts which have finished their roles . . . erect impressive plans for the future which leave their marks on the audiences watching their never-ceasing panorama of events . . . By participation in these clubs we may further a hobby . . . catch a glimpse of a hitherto unknown picture of life . . . perhaps even add to enjoyment an inspiration which may lead to a life-work . . . Here the words “constructive, educational” become more than stereotyped phrases—they are symbols of hours as real, as alive as any spent in DeVilbiss . . . In radio, the background of interest for many regular listeners is supplied by daily serial presentations . . . In DeVilbiss, this foundation is supplied by our clubs . . . May we present . . . the real-life story of the 1938-1939 DeVilbiss organizations!

PROGRAM SELECTIONS

One important fact about the continued stories sent over every network is that each is adapted to a different type of listener. So it is in DeVilbiss, too. There is a club for every class of student. Each organization provides education and enjoyment as the essential factors of its program, but each also tries to add that "extra touch" to school life for one particular type of student. So whether you are interested in charm, chemistry, or Chopin, you will be sure to find the best things in DeVilbiss life by participating in its clubs.

COMMISSIONERS OF STUDENT COUNCIL

Starred in the production of DeVilbiss activities were the Commissioners of the Student Council, each one of which is entitled to a Spotlight of his own. Cast in this important drama were the following leaders in our Student Council:

Ted Michelfelder.....President
Joan Metcalf.....Welfare
Bob Bergman.....Service
Tom Brown.....Finance
Mary Dennen.....Social Affairs
Heinz Warmbrunn.....Organizations
Nedra Daley.....Publications

Jim Harris.....Publicity
Robert Smith.....Athletics
Ray Zawodny.....Justice
Lloyd Holton.....Awards
Lois Konker.....Clerk of Board
Mr. Louis Mathias.....Adviser

This board serves to direct all phases of school life and works towards the maintenance of the highest possible standard of fellowship in the school and with other schools. This year the various commissions have inaugurated several new features. The monitor system for auditorium sessions, a new system of hall patrol, and the providing of entertainment between halves of athletic contests, all are results of the efforts of the Board of Commissioners. The school as a whole has directly benefited from the successful production of this year's Student Council.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The age-old saying that Variety is the spice of life accurately describes the DeVilbiss Student Council; the Variety is found in the presence of a member of each home-room on the Council, and the “spice” represents the completion of the different projects undertaken by this group of students. Ted Michelfelder, competent president of the Council, performed his duties in a very effective way, and along with the aid of Mr. Mathias, the adviser, and the Board of Commissioners, drew the year’s activities to a successful conclusion.

Although the various commissions need no sanction from the Student Council to do things, their functions were vital parts of the Council. For instance, the Publications Commission was authorized to compile and publish a new student handbook, which was one of the Council’s major undertakings this year. Under the supervision of the Commission of Social Affairs, the “Council Cotillion,” the dance that opened the year’s whirl of social doings, was held in November. The Welfare Commission took charge of the distribution of baskets of food at Thanksgiving and Christmas—a service which greatly aided many unfortunate families. One of the most successful Parent-Teacher Association membership drives was made possible by the help and interest of the Council members. Throughout all its activities the goal of the Council has been to help maintain order, to promote school spirit, and to settle fairly questions pertaining to the school and its students.

HIGHLIGHTING THE YEAR

THE NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

First Row—Rosemary Wolfe, Barbara Melvin, Virginia Dingman, Dorothy Koch, Suzanne Lehman, Betty Ellen Yoh, Anna Mae Newton, Jeanne Speyer, Barbara Bash, Eleanor Crannell, Phyllis Conover, Cristine Pappas, Ruth Fox, Marjorie Snody, Emilyanne Sawtelle, Harriet Spilman. Second Row—Gloria Grainger, Martha Ellen Miley, Patricia Rose, Catherine Minke, Marie Bollinger, Evelyn Lewis, Lois Konker, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Greunke, Marilyn Fox, Marjorie Urschel, Martha Hardy, Ellen Wilson, Frieda Bartlett, Marjorie Wells, Phyllis Carson. Third Row—Margery Staler, Mary Howell, Virginia Lentz, Mary Ellen Chappuis, Mary Dennen, Joan Metcalf, Ruth Metzger, Mary Lou Whitney, Margaret Mudge, Bob Bergman, Nick Walinski, Bob Black, Bill Kamke, Ted Michelfelder, Jack Chenevert, Charles Woodward. Fourth Row—Marjorie Hunt, Nedra Daley, Elizabeth Siddall, Tom Brown, Eugene Hunt, Joe Collins, Warren Howell, Richard Henkel, Philo Dunsmore, Ralph McBee, Heinz Warmbrunn, James Edmunds, Bob Weiser, Joe Clifford.

Highlighting the Year is not only the policy of the National Honor Society, but a duty which necessarily falls upon its shoulders, because of the high quality and caliber of the students of which it is composed. Great things are expected from it—and it never fails us. Always happy and impressive are the occasions when new members are inducted into this society, and in both January and March the DeVilbiss auditorium proudly housed the parents and friends of those students newly elected for membership. Student speakers at each of these inductions exemplified the four virtues of the organization—scholarship, leadership, character, and service.

Constantly endeavoring to aid and better the school, the National Honor Society grasps any possible chance to be of service. One example of this has been the maintenance of the college room, which affords to students the opportunity to obtain information applicable to their choices of colleges. The Honor Society college room committee has taken care of this room in a noteworthy manner, especially by instituting the new and helpful filing system. Again members proffered their services to faculty members, by offering to take the places of those who found it necessary to leave their home rooms at any time.

The highlights of the year in social affairs was the banquet at Vocational High School which was attended by all the other Honor Societies of the city.

The officers of all clubs are important, but the officers of this society, Joseph Clifford, president; Mary Lou Whitney, vice-president; Marjorie Urschel, secretary; and Joseph Collins, treasurer, have this year executed their duties so well that they are not merely officers, but necessary assets to the society. Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Greunke, with their competent assistance and understanding, have done much to make the ideals of the organization obvious in its history.

H O U R O F C H A R M

SENIOR FRIENDSHIP

Chief "charmners" on the Hour of Charm are Evelyn Lewis, Barbara Melvin, Jean Mersereau, Marjorie Urschel, and Gloria Keeling in the respective offices of president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and chaplain. Aiding this cabinet in its meetings and projects have been Miss Johnson, Miss Kimble, and Miss Lukens, all of whom helped the club to live up to its purpose of "finding and giving the best."

The Hour of Charm has supplemented its regular business meetings and programs with social and welfare doings. In November the club held a hayride, after which supper was served at Ruth Bishop's home. At Christmas time the club was especially busy filling a basket, holding a party at Catherine Milne's home, and making plans for the skating party which was held at the Pastime Club in Perrysburg early in January. Ever mindful of the desire to help others, the club sponsored two parties for the fifth grade class at the Miami Children's Home. In April an informal get-together was held for the members and their mothers at the Y. W. C. A., where films and a pot-luck dinner were enjoyed.

One of the most impressive services given this year was the Recognition Service, held by candlelight in the library under the direction of Eleanor Crannell, at which Mrs. J. Brent Wood gave a very inspirational talk on the ideals embodied in being a Girl Reserve. Her talk summarized the goals toward which the Senior Friendship Club has striven this year.

SENIOR HI-Y

Every Thursday evening brings a feeling of independence and self reliance to those senior boys who are fortunate enough to belong to this organization; for it is on that evening that the members of this club gather in the Y. M. C. A. to discuss, plan, and apply ways in which they can live up to their purpose, that of "creating, maintaining, and extending throughout the school and community high standards of Christian character." The officers of the Hi-Y are personifications of the purpose, as well as being able leaders of this very active group: Bob Wieser, president; Tom Brown, vice-president; Bob Bergman, secretary; Nick Walinski, treasurer, and Paul Ericson, chaplain. The members of the club wish to express their appreciation to the advisers, Mr. Lampton and Mr. Daniells, for their help and cooperation in carrying through the many projects.

The Hi-Y is generally recognized as being most successful hosts at the social functions which they hold. On these occasions they lay aside their rule of Men Only and genially entertain their feminine friends at roasts, treasure hunts, and other similar affairs. The programs this year have been unusually worth-while; talks at different meetings by the News Editor of the Toledo Blade, by Mr. O. B. Kirk, and by Reverend Carlson proved to be instructive and interesting to the listeners.

This Hi-Y will long be remembered as a wide-awake, active, industrious club, composed of the leaders of the Senior Class.

THE MOST OUT OF LIFE

JUNIOR FRIENDSHIP CLUB

If some afternoon you should stop in at a meeting of the Junior Friendship Club, you would find that its participants are getting The Most Out of Life. Through a varied series of programs and social events, this organization has tried to make the lives of its members richer, fuller, and more happy.

Because they had known previously that a talk by Sergeant Margaret Slater would meet with a high degree of success, the Junior Club invited the Seniors to benefit also from its worth and practicality. Later an extensive program of excursions through industries was presented, in order that the Junior Friendship Club members might become acquainted with the businesses of their community.

When planning their year, Ruth Olds, president; Marilyn Shields, vice-president; Isabelle Mears, secretary; Janet Youngs, treasurer; Betty Urie, chaplain; and Miss Schmidt and Miss Warner, advisers, decided to adopt the adage "all work and no play makes Friendship members dull girls." Consequently carefree hilarity reigned during the hayride sponsored by this society, and an afternoon dance merited the wholehearted support of the entire DeVilbiss student body. Additional good times were found in a Halloween party and a picnic.

To help the girls who next year will become the Junior Friendship Club, the present club wishes to leave, as an inspiration to get The Most Out of Life, the purpose of their organization: to stand for scholarship, wholesome pleasures, a friendly spirit, helpfulness to others, and to lead a normal, happy Christian life.

THURSDAY EVENING HOUR

JUNIOR HI-Y

The Thursday Evening Hour from 7:30 to 8:30 finds a group of high-minded junior boys seeking a source of inspiration and fellowship in the Junior Hi-Y meetings. Talks by Mr. Lowry of the DeVilbiss faculty, Mr. O. B. Kirk of Scott who spoke on "Teacher-Pupil Relations," and Mr. Dorman Richardson who expressed his attitudes on "Religion and What It Means to Me" provided the inspiration, while the fellowship was presented through the club's social life. Several roasts, the successful afternoon dance known as the "Jitterboop," a splash party, and a "Community Sing" dominated this side of the year's activities. The club proved its willingness to serve when they passed out programs at the Teachers' Convention, ushered at the Baccalaureate Service, and helped with the serving of the Fathers' and Sons' Banquet.

Prominent personages in this Thursday Evening Hour are Dick Nuffer, who presides over the meetings; Don Oehmler, who aids him in this task; Dick Hunter, who with his assistant, George Decklemen, writes the minutes; Dick Edwards, who handles the financial matters of the club; and Mr. Philip Schaefer of the Y. M. C. A., who faithfully and helpfully fulfilled the capacity of adviser.

The Junior Hi-Y'ers rightfully feel that they have made long strides this year in advancing toward a more perfect brotherhood in which high-quality character and careful leadership will be outstanding.

First Row—Dorothy Edgington, Florence Colby, Katherine Simpson, Joyce Patten, Martha Merrill, Mary Baker, Mary Jane Boesel, Grace Carstensen, Louise Niles, Dorothea Collins, Margery Wenner, Peggy Kirkham, Patricia Gilmore, Doris DeAngelo. Second Row—Dorothy Frech, Helen May, Meredith Gutzmer, Lillian Wasserstrom, Margaret Porter, Lulla Perikly, Jacquelyn Schautz, Jean Obee, Jean Barrell, Barbara Chambers, Jean Rogers, Eileen Nisch, Constance Photos, Alice Barkenquast. Third Row—Lynette DeHaven, Marilyn Goon, Martha Holton, Mary Jean Caldwell, Paula Lightner, Alice Nisley, Mary Louise Irwin, Mrs. Shawen, Jean Emery, Helen Poindexter, Caroline Diehl, Mary Seifert, Ruth Lanz, Wilma Schroder. Fourth Row—Donna White, Betty McCandless, Martha Nash, Lucia Stoll, Loretta Heinzeroth, Betty Crowl, Wilma Racker, Marilyn Nesper, Miss Samsen, Dolly Penske, Betty Mae Emahiser, Betty Fosnow, Bertha Diener, Betty Jane Hall, Shirley Harrell, Katherine Simonds.

During the Goodwill Hour the members of the Sophomore Friendship Club strive to promote friendship among the girls at DeVilbiss. This idea has been carried out by their interesting social gatherings, such as a box social, a roller skating party, and a splash party with the Sophomore Hi-Y.

According to the programs scheduled for the year the members also derived some educational values. The talks by Miss Pasch, Miss Herler of the Y. W. C. A., Miss Miller, and Miss Hirth were enjoyed as this type of program. After the quiz-bee on "Personality" in which Mrs. Greunke, Miss Samsen, and Miss Schmidt answered questions, the girls departed from the meeting, feeling as though they had really gained some pointers on the development of one's personality.

GOOD NEWS OF 1939

PRISM

Good News of 1939 presented by the DeVilbiss Prism! Every other Friday, twelve hundred students can be found eagerly scanning the pages of their Prisms, seeking a bit of humor, a bit of scandal, or a touch of Good News. And rarely are they disappointed, for the Prism staff has worked industriously this year in attempting to meet its aim of presenting an authentic record of happenings in and around DeVilbiss. New types of headlines, stories, columns, and arrangements facilitate our reading of the paper, and keep the Prism astride with this stream-lined world in which we live.

Behind the scenes can be seen Editor-in-Chief Virginia Dingman standing by ready to do anything at all that will help the cause along. Associate Editors Patricia Rose, Sophia Drzewiecki, Jim Ross, and Dick Bridenbaugh hastily type their columns, quickly arrange their page lay-outs (all the while refreshing themselves with inconceivable quantities of potato chips), and finally breathe a sigh of relief as their duty is completed—that of getting the paper to press before the deadline. Business Manager Walter Crawl assumes the chief worry over the problem of getting enough advertising, while the advisers, Miss Hirth and Miss Bloom, patiently lend their support to the whole staff in an effort to publish the best possible Prism.

WOMEN IN THE NEWS

PHILALETHEAN LITERARY SOCIETY

The title Women in the News accurately fits the Philalethean Literary Society; for really, throughout the whole year, this organization has been doing big things that have kept it constantly in the news. The two induction spreads; the pot-luck dinner and bridge party; the tea at which the Libbey Phils entertained the De-Vilbiss chapter; the very successful afternoon dance held on Friday the thirteenth, with decorations carried out accordingly—black cats, open umbrellas, and ladders to walk under; the basketball banquet at the Plaza, at which the team, the coaches, trainers, and their wives were the honored guests; the tea they gave for the Libbey and the Scott Phils; the annual tea the juniors gave in honor of the senior members—there's just no end to these affairs that afforded the Phils so much fun and food.

The Phils also held up the literary end of their organization as evidenced by their programs which consisted of reviews on books or current fiction, biography, plays, and poetry.

The question of why the Phils can be so active is never present in the minds of those who are acquainted with its capable and enthusiastic leaders; just look at them—Mary Ellen Chappuis, president; Suzanne Lehman, vice-president; Evelyn Lewis, recording secretary; Betty Ellen Yoh, corresponding secretary; Margery Staler, treasurer; and Marjorie Urschel, chaplain. What club wouldn't flourish with a cabinet of officers such as this! It is only with the cooperation and guidance of their advisers, Miss Ruth Smith, Miss Willoughby, and Miss Gerding, that the Phils have been enabled to finish such a successful year. Watch for the Women in the News. They'll be there!

M A G I C K E Y

PERICLEAN LITERARY SOCIETY

Having indeed secured and used a Magic Key, the Peris this year have unlocked the world of opera to provide opportunity for members to enjoy and learn the great deeds of great men and women. Unlike Pandora's box, only the best has flown forth to form their program. The life of the composer and the plot were given in detail by the members of the organization, and the program was usually begun and concluded by the presentation of music from the opera.

However, the girl's interest in their programs has not kept them from enjoying many attractive social functions. Two candlelight induction services have been held, compiled by a delicious spread each time. The members enjoyed a Christmas party, and, instead of exchanging gifts, sent presents to the hill people of Kentucky. The club also sponsored an afternoon dance, "The Peri Pow Wow", on the third of March, for which Indian heads were sold as favors.

Yes, indeed, Joan Metcalf, the president, has certainly held the Magic Key this year with Nedra Daley, vice-president; Catherine Minke, secretary; Patricia Rose, treasurer; and Marjorie Lamb, chaplain, acting as trustees. During the summer months the "key" has been entrusted to Miss Marian Smith, Mrs. Whaley, and Mrs. Schwenke, the advisers, to be kept until next fall.

THIS DAY IS OURS

DER DEUTSCHE VEREIN

Believing that truly This Day Is Ours, Frederick Gipson, president; Martha Ellen Miley, vice-president; Jeanette Klotz, secretary; Paul Baehren, treasurer, and Miss Gerding, adviser, have presented in Der Deutsche Verein an excellent opportunity to students of German to study German culture outside of class.

The varied social program has included a popcorn party, parties at school and in Miss Gerding's home, a musicale, a concert party, a farewell picnic, and an all-city tea. The Christmas party was attended by seven alumni.

To provide opportunity for German students to hear and speak more German, and to learn more of Germany's cultural contribution has been the purpose of Der Deutsche Verein.

Each club member is given the privilege of associating with other students who are studying German, and can thus improve his use of this language by constant conversation. To teach the members of the cultural progress of the German people has been the aim of the program chairman, who has succeeded well in obtaining for our pleasure, speakers and guests who are really acquainted with the Germans and their habits. Thus the goal of the organization has been well accomplished in its varied educational and social program.

JAM FOR DINNER

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

The Home Economics Club is gifted with the ability to make Jam for Dinner, in addition to everything else that goes with a meal. Besides their excellence in the line of culinary arts, the members of this club have worked toward the acquisition of the various social graces through their monthly parties at which refreshments were served and the game of bridge was learned. A theater party and a spring tea were also highlights of the club's social activities.

The theme of the educational meetings was based around the different vocations that are open to girls. Miss Miller, Miss Abbott, and Miss Sanger gave helpful talks at these meetings on their lines of work. Several of the members of the club were fortunate enough to be able to attend the annual Home Economics Convention in Columbus on April fourteenth and fifteenth.

To guide them in their Jam for Dinner activities the girls elected Clara Cordes, president; Lucille Kohl, vice-president; Virginia Mowry, secretary; and Marjorie Palmer, treasurer. Miss Norton, Miss Ashley, Miss Bargmann, and Miss Stoll have served as the faithful advisers to the Home Economics Club.

STRAIGHT SHOOTERS

BOWLING CLUB

To combine straight shooting, accuracy, and enjoyment may seem rather a large assignment, but it is only a part of the program of the boys' bowling club. Keen competition was also added to this list by the boys, twenty-one of whom were chosen to represent DeVilbiss in the Saturday High School Bowling Leagues.

President Charles Grossman, Secretary Donald Klewer, and Treasurer Willis Brown have admirably fulfilled their purpose of inciting more interest in bowling among DeVilbiss boys. Under the guidance of Adviser Louis Mathias, the club capped the year's activities with a bowling tournament.

Meeting every Tuesday at three-fifteen in the Auditorium Bowling Alleys, the boys combine the process of increasing their ability with whole-hearted enthusiasm for this recreation. In the two branches of the National League and in the American League they have found that the skill and accuracy developed in this sport may help in "straight shooting" in the future.

ZETALETHEAN LITERARY SOCIETY

By listening to one of the programs presented on Monday afternoon at the Zets' meeting, you would find not only a review of a current play, but in addition the latest news of the theater itself. Stage settings, actors, and playwrights have also formed the basis for programs. With keen enjoyment, the Zets have reviewed "Our Town," "Susan and God" and "White Oaks," as part of their Tale of Today.

Aside from their dramatic interest the club has also had its social moments. There were spreads and a progressive dinner, as well as the theater party which climaxed their study of drama. The year's activities were brought to a close with their annual spring roast.

A Tale of Today would not be complete without the leading characters, and in the story of the Zetalethean Literary Society, Martha Jane Chambers is president; Catherine McDonald, vice-president; Barbara Melvin, secretary; Ruth Widrig, treasurer; and Janet Spears, chaplain. The helpful trio of advisers includes Mrs. Sutter, Mrs. Brand, and Mrs. King.

THIS LIVING WORLD

DEVILBISS NATURALISTS' ASSOCIATION

This Living World provided the incentive for the projects carried out by the DeVilbiss Naturalists' Association. This club was formerly the Museum Club but has recently become affiliated with the Toledo Naturalists' Association, thus having the privilege of attending their meetings and participating in their field trips. The officers, Joe Collins, president; Robert Leach, vice-president; Nedra Daley, secretary; and Lois Konker, treasurer, have worked steadily with the advisers, Miss Brown, Miss Severens, and Mr. Lampton, to stimulate an interest in the natural sciences. In order to accomplish this end, field trips and excursion trips were planned and held under the chairmanship of John Ladd. Fred Gipson acted as head of the Project Committee, which has classified the material collected by students and assisted Mr. Lampton in working in the conservatory.

Mindful of the need for social as well as educational activities, the club appointed Frances Baker social committee chairman, and accordingly several parties were arranged for the enjoyment of the members.

The programs this year contributed greatly to the knowledge of the members and inspired the club as a whole with loftier ideals in connection with This Living World.

LISTEN AND READ

LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

The purpose of the Library Association is to directly aid the DeVilbiss High School Library, and, along with doing this, to have a well-balanced social program for its members.

This year our literary programs have dealt with the many famous women in literature, sports, art, the theater, science and music, while our social program consisted of induction of new members twice during the year, a dance, a scavenger hunt with the alumni, a mothers' tea, a Christmas party, a progressive dinner, and a picnic in May.

The club again this year directed the activities of Book Week, and gave a reference book to the library at that time.

Mary Ann Miller, president; Ruth Fox, vice-president; Eleanor Melucas, secretary; Dorothy Campbell, treasurer; with Miss Schueren and Mrs. Gunn, as advisers, have captained the activities of the club this year.

With the closing of a successful year, the members of the association wish to thank Miss Schueren and Mrs. Gunn for their assistance in making the meetings worthwhile.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

SCIENCE CLUB

What Do You Think? This and many other questions are asked and answered at the meetings of the Science Club, for it is the purpose of this club to broaden the scientific knowledge of its members. Chief question-answerers were found in the officers Jean Shirk, president; Frank Fraser, vice-president; Virginia Kietzman, secretary; Meyer Poneman, treasurer; and Richard Lennex, sergeant at arms. Questions that could not be answered were referred to Miss Mary Fischer, adviser and source of information to the club.

What events did the club hold this year? This question might prove to be a "stickler" for some, but not for those who have heartily participated in its activities. Specific studies and experiments have been made in the fields of soils, gardens, and pol-oroid; talks presented by Mr. Joseph Bartley and Mr. Arthur Peterson enlightened the members; Dr. Thornton, one of the men who helped to discover Vitamin "B," gave a very interesting talk on the subject of his work in connection with vitamins.

Did the club neglect its social duties? By no means! A Christmas party at the Ottawa Park Shelter House took care of this important side to a club's life. One of the unusual and original features that the club fostered this year was the publication of the Science Star, a paper dealing with its projects.

Has the year been a success? From all sides can be heard the members answering in one accord, "Yes!"

A person listening to the Americans at Work program should not be surprised to hear recognition accorded to the Junior Red Cross chapter of DeVilbiss High School, for this organization has indeed worked industriously in order to live up to its purpose, that of service to others. Under the capable guidance of Robert Leach, president; Virginia Brandes, vice-president; Pauline Miller, secretary; Jack Kozy, treasurer, and Miss Daisy Van Noorden, adviser, many projects were carried out to a successful conclusion. An afternoon dance was held in April, clothing was distributed to those less fortunate than ourselves, pictures were placed in the crippled children's home, toys were sent to Coney Creek settlement in Kentucky, and Braille book covers were made for the blind. As an unusual feature, gifts were exchanged with a similar organization in Greece. The Junior Red Cross is well worthy of commendation for its interesting and helpful work.

STOP AND GO

CHESS CLUB

A knight is moved—after an hour of deliberation a king is stealthily shoved one square further—they're on the home stretch now—only several more moves—and the DeVilbiss Chess Club has again emerged victorious over a rival chess team. Besides being an organization to arouse interest in the game of chess, sociability is also promoted among those students who spend long but thoughtful hours over the chess board. The fact that chess is a game of the medieval days does not mean that only those with a yearning for the long, long ago are interested in its revival, for chess is rapidly becoming a game played in fashionable circles; for instance, take the leaders of our own DeVilbiss Chess Club: Craddock Jackson, president; Ralph McBee, vice-president; William Baum, secretary; George Bartley, treasurer; and Mr. David Voss, adviser. These are all active and ambitious people, but nevertheless seem perfectly willing and even anxious to spend much time at this game. A vote of thanks must be given to Mr. Voss whose intensive interest in chess causes him to carry a pocket board. He can be seen many times in the halls of DeVilbiss, stopping the person whose turn is next.

Within the last few years the Chess Club has gained in prominence, and is steadily continuing its upward climb. Stop down in Room 118 sometime to watch the Chess Club Stop and Go—you'll be interested.

MUSIC YOU WANT

ORCHESTRA

To further the interest in music and to provide Music You Want is the purpose of the Orchestra, which is under the baton of Miss Bessie Werum. Assisting her in the management of its affairs have been Don Rice, June Liggitt, and Eileen Morgan, who served in the capacities of president, vice-president, and treasurer, respectively.

The DeVilbiss Orchestra has been greatly in demand this year for combination programs; for instance, the operetta, "Trial by Jury," which the glee club and orchestra presented together. Another event of this sort was the concert given by the glee club, band, and orchestra, the three musical organizations of DeVilbiss.

The combined efforts of the orchestra of Waite, Woodward, Scott, and DeVilbiss were the occasion for another concert. A program presented in the amphitheater of the Walbridge Park Zoo, and the annual May Festival, which grade school and high school students combine to give, completed the year's activities. In addition to these musical programs, the orchestra also sponsored a successful afternoon dance.

All in all, the orchestra has worked effectively toward presenting Music You Want.

Second Row—Wilbur Lawson, Henry Szafarek, Marian Smart, Jean Paulson, Margaret Fleck, Miss Werum, June Leggett, Maxine Bock, Jean Shearer, William Jeffries, Hugh Reams.

ON WINGS OF SONG

GLEE CLUB

Presented by the Glee Club On Wings of Song were the operettas "Big Day" and "Trial By Jury." Annabel Brecht took the leading role in the first presentation, while the chief parts in the second were sung by Joanne Verral and Winston Churchill. The singing of Christmas carols in the library and the presentation of a fine concert on the last day of March served as additional steps preceding the climax of the year, the May Festival.

Since the Glee Club participated in so many programs, James Greiner served as stage manager, Marilyn Harris and Glen McDonald took charge of properties, Annabel Brecht and Wayne Lindecker handled publicity, and Emilyanne Sawtelle acted as music librarian. The Glee Club was also fortunate in having Donald Kinney as president; Winston Churchill as vice-president; Wanda Helms, secretary; Catherine Minke, treasurer, and Mr. Ball as adviser, to aid in spreading their activities On Wings of Song.

This organization is valuable in that it affords an opportunity for students at De-Vilbiss, with vocal talent or with just a love of singing, to meet and make use of their interest. Their programs are both educational and entertaining, and are obvious proof of the time and perseverance put into them.

DON'T YOU BELIEVE IT

BRAIN TRUST

DeVilbiss has long felt the need of a student organization to further the study of the advanced sciences. This year, to fill the need, the Brain Trust was created, with Rollin Gray selected as the first president. Each remaining member of the organization is either a vice-president or a professor, according to the excellence which he exhibits in the field that interests him. Examples of the various studies into which the members delve are the fourth dimension, non-euclidean geometry, physics, integral calculus, and differential radiations. Certain members of the organization, who specialize in no particular field, do their bit by lending expert assistance or moral support. Under the guidance of Miss Samsen and Mr. Featherstone, advisers, the Brain Trust has flourished in its infancy, and it is the desire of every member that, through its efforts, the value of science in life may be fully understood and appreciated.

Programs have included visits to several industrial concerns in various parts of the city. These trips have served to illustrate the practical application of the knowledge which the boys are deriving from their discussions with each other and with their advisers. Thus, by coordinating pure and applied science, these fellows have in some measure improved their knowledge of both theory and practice. During the DeVilbiss DeViltries the organization demonstrated its ability not only to think along scientific lines, but also to produce results of interest to the scientific world.

Do you think that the Brain Trust has really furthered the interest in the advanced sciences at DeVilbiss? Do you think that it is really composed of serious and studyminded fellows who are interested only in delving into such things as the fourth dimension or non-euclidean geometry? Do you think that the Brain Trust is really a Brain Trust? Well—Don't You Believe It.

RIDING CLUB

Turf Talk serves not only as a symbol of the purpose of the DeVilbiss Riding Club, but also as a basis for their varied social activities. Nine o'clock Saturday morning finds the girls at Douglas Meadows Riding Academy ready to "learn how to ride better and to acquire more skillful horsemanship."

Besides these exhilarating morning rides, the members enjoyed a hay ride, two night rides, and a sleigh ride. A splash party and a breakfast after one of the regular rides helped to vary the social program.

Jean Mutchler, president; Ruth Gudehus, vice-president; Gertrude Gudehus, secretary; Jessie Harroun, treasurer; and Miss Ashley and Mrs. Ardner, advisers, have taken charge of the informal business meetings at which refreshments were served. Carrying out the motto Turf Talk, a well-known rider spoke at one of these regular meetings.

A BRAVE NEW WORLD SPANISH CLUB

When reading the name Spanish Club, perhaps one usually thinks of Old World Spain, but the members of this organization are interested not so much in Old Spain as in The Brave New World of South America. In furthering this interest, a continuous stream of correspondence is carried on between Toledo and the South American countries.

Their outstanding cabinet of officers includes Marie Bollinger, president; Bill Kamke, vice-president; Doris Weiser, recording secretary; Patricia Lutz, corresponding secretary; Charles Woodward, treasurer; Helen Degner, chaplain; and Miss Kerlin, Miss Payne, and Mr. Brown, advisers.

Besides the regular programs which featured reports and speakers from Latin-American countries, the Spanish Club enjoyed many social functions, such as the alumni party, the Spanish Fiesta, and the annual spring roast. In addition to social entertainment, a Pan-American program was presented in the auditorium to commemorate the friendship between the Americas.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

Il faut qu'on parle francais! In spite of this forbidding threat, a large number of students were attracted to the meetings of The Circle, or, more correctly, Le Cercle Francais. One of the biggest events of the year was the Mardi Gras Celebration, a program based on the similar annual festival day in France. Those most interested in stimulating and increasing knowledge of the French language and customs were the officers and adviser: Philip O'Neill, president; Marjorie Urschel, vice-president; Janet Spears, recording secretary; Suzanne Lehman, corresponding secretary; Warren Howell, treasurer; and Miss Marian Smith who gave willingly of her time and efforts for the success of the club.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC SOCIETY

The Girls' Athletic Society has done much to disprove the long accepted adage that a girl's place in athletics is merely that of an onlooker. With a membership of about two hundred girls, this society presents a dual program consisting of after school intramurals and business and social meetings. Its Sportfolio we now unfold to let you review briefly its activities of the year. The portion reserved for social memories features the annual coed ball, pops' night, the mothers' tea, and the senior farewell party. But that section which deserves most prominence introduces those girls who were awarded letters, chevrons, and lockets, because they seemed to characterize best the ideals of the organization.

The persons responsible for the success of the year are Mary Howell, president; Ruth Bishop, vice-president; Ruth Thomas, secretary; Catherine Milne, treasurer; Mary Lou Whitney, program chairman; and Miss Gottshall, adviser.

In facing the New Horizons that every freshman must encounter upon entering high school, problems are presented to him in making friendships and in becoming acquainted with new systems and rules in force in high school. Freshman girls are fortunate in having a Friendship Club to help them make these important adjustments. Miss Elaine Hirth and Miss Marie Lerche have very graciously aided the girls in organizing their club this year. Student leaders have been Katharine Lehman, president; Dorothy McClure, vice-president; Rosemary Claypool, secretary; Caroline Napp, treasurer; and Janet Cauffiel, chaplain.

As You Like It is more than a phrase from Shakespeare to the members of the Twins' Club—it is the very symbol of their organization. Under President Jane Hammer, Vice-President Marietta Sautter, and Secretary-Treasurer Jean Shearer, the social season included a roast, a hayride, an afternoon dance and an alumni party. With the advisership of Mr. Bigelow and Mr. Featherstone, who unfortunately have no duplicates, the Twins' Club has proved an exception to the rule "good things do not come in pairs."

MERRYMAKERS

SORELLE SOCIAL SOCIETY

The Merrymakers of the Sorelle Social Society were led this year by Gloria Keeling, president; Mary Dennen, vice-president; Marguerite Price, recording secretary; Jayne Monaghan, corresponding secretary; Marjorie Lamb, treasurer; Virginia Walton, chaplain; Martha Heston, sergeant at arms; and Miss Rose Bloom, adviser.

First Row—Marjorie Lamb, Helen May, Gloria Keeling, Dorothy Sussman, Marie Bollinger, Marguerite Price. Second Row—Pat Wernert, Joan Bollinger, Jayne Monaghan, Mary Ellen Chappuis, Virginia Walton, Vivian Berquist. Third Row—Mildred Buser, Mary Dennen, Joan Metcalf.

SONS OF THE PIONEERS

AVIATION CLUB

Aviation Club members are indeed Sons of Pioneers and their curiosity and adventuresome spirit are exhibited in their study of aviation. Offering DeVilbiss students the opportunity to further their interest in this field, the Aviation Society, under the direction of George Spaleny, president; Fred Schafstall, vice-president; Jay Wagner, secretary-treasurer; and Mr. P. B. Hartman, adviser, has fulfilled its purpose admirably. To augment the interest of the members, programs and talks were developed on such topics as "History of Aviation" and "Requirements for Entrance in the United States Air Corps." Discussion groups, moving pictures, and the annual spring trip also added to this varied program.

H O B B Y L O B B Y

CAMERA CLUB

The Camera Club obviously is composed of those students to whom picture-taking is a hobby and an interest. This interest is increased by the taking of field trips pertaining to their work and monthly photography contests.

The leaders of the club are photographers Craig Dalton, president; Dale Anderson, vice-president; Bill Grover, secretary; Dick Nuffer, treasurer; and Mr. R. K. Lampton, adviser.

Leading the Frolics of the Sophomore Hi-Y this year have been Harvey Jones, president; Warren Pelton, vice-president; Wendell Johnson, secretary; Julian Bishop, treasurer; and Mr. John Wickter of the Y. M. C. A., adviser.

DEVILBISS ENGINEERING SOCIETY

Acting as board of directors for the Engineering Society were Dick Kinney, president; Don Ellis, vice-president; Jack Badenhope, secretary; Richard Lee, treasurer; and Mr. Norman Stalker, adviser. These have done much to keep the wheels of this society turning rapidly and interestingly.

NEWS COMES TO LIFE

QUILL AND SCROLL

News Come to Life at the meetings of the DeVilbiss chapter of Quill and Scroll under the guidance of Miss Rose Bloom, national vice-president of Quill and Scroll this year. Alumni news was investigated, and the initial steps for an alumni association were taken. President Nedra Daley; Vice-president, Jim Ross; and Secretary-Treasurer, Dorothy Koch, helped in the plans for the annual banquet and formal induction by which interest in journalism is increased in DeVilbiss.

THE INSIDE STORY

DEVILBISS DIGEST

Behind the presentation of the unique pocket-size DeVilbiss Digest is the efficient co-operation of Miss Rose Bloom and Miss Elaine Hirth with a staff of juniors. This magazine is composed of carefully selected original work of DeVilbiss students. With its wide range of stories, poems, and essays, this creative outlet has not only carved its place in DeVilbiss life but has also gained national recognition.

J A M B O R E E BAND

A sound of drums, a blare of trumpets, the shrill blast of a whistle—we present the DeVilbiss Band for a Jamboree. Charles Cohagen, drum major and student leader, whirls his baton of leadership with amazing rapidity and skill, aided by Ellwood Swanson, president-treasurer; Van Curtis, vice-president; and Helen Stohon, secretary.

The Band plays an important role in the scenes enacted at DeVilbiss—that of aiding to increase the school spirit of the student body. With a well organized group of fine musicians dressed in colorful black and orange uniforms, DeVilbiss can proudly face any opposing team—and meet it with spirit. Our Band spends much time learning new selections and forming unusual arrangements, thus displaying its group talent.

Any basketball or football game, all parades and mass meetings, find the Band ready and anxious to do its bit. But other activities, too, form part of its program. It participated in a combined concert with the Orchestra and Glee Club in March, and also represented DeVilbiss at the annual May Festival.

Mr. Guy V. Sutphen, adviser of the Band, has contributed a great deal towards its success, topping his achievements by the writing of the impressive “Alma Mater Song,” the words for which were submitted by his wife. In addition, Mr. Sutphen has increased the interest in the Band by teaching its members the history of music.

Other students little realize that belonging to this organization requires much time and constancy. Carrying and playing an instrument on cold days in an open field causes discomfitures, to say the least. “Chuck” Cohagen, stop the Band now at the student stands, and await our cheers of thanks and appreciation. You’ve done much to inspire our school on to victory.

THREE CHEERS

VARSITY "D"

The Varsity "D" certainly deserves Three Cheers for its work as an athletic organization. Its members, though, are accustomed to cheers, for it is composed of those athletes who have had the ability and the character necessary in order to obtain a "D," which at DeVilbiss is the symbol of a good player in every sense of the term.

Their purpose they consider as being threefold: to foster all moves that will tend to improve athletics at DeVilbiss; to create a closer feeling of brotherhood among its members; and to uphold the dignity of the varsity "D". Certainly this purpose will do much to further clean and wholesome athletics here, and it is a concrete illustration of the fine fellows of which our teams are composed.

The boys in the Varsity "D" derived great enjoyment from amusing the audience between the halves of basketball games. Programs of mock hockey and basketball were presented, and both the onlookers and the players were hilariously entertained.

Even clubs composed of all boys are interested in social events. It could be expected that the Varsity "D" would sponsor a roller skating party, for certainly fellows who can play football or basketball, or who can enter easily into any one of the many other sports, ought to know how to roller skate. But we didn't think that they would be able to dance. Consequently when it was announced that these fellows were to give a dance in the near future the entire student body opened wide their eyes, and laughed silently. But to our surprise, the fellows were found to be as graceful and competent as dancers as they are at any rougher sport. Both of these affairs met with a high degree of success.

We again give Three Cheers when we mention the officers and advisers of the organization: President Jack Jewhurst; Vice-president Clarence Ehrhardt; Secretary Philo Dunsmore; Treasurer Kenneth Larsen; Sergeant at arms Jack Kehle; and advisers Mr. Joseph Collins, Mr. Harry Rice, Mr. Norm Pollman, Mr. Lars Wagner, and Mr. Ollie Klee. Any athletic organization would flourish with a cabinet such as this!

SUB-DEBS

As the prelude to their debut in the social affairs of life the Sub-Debs, under the leadership of Betty Ellen Yoh, the president; Ruth Bishop, vice-president; Martha Hardy, recording secretary; Charlotte Keenan, corresponding secretary; and Betty Housen, treasurer, are enjoying school social life to the fullest.

Beginning with an initiation spread at the home of Ruth Bishop, the program progressed rapidly with a roast, an evening of cards at Betty Brechenser's, a skating party, and a tea for senior girls. With these events the girls initiated their prelude to popularity.

MERRY-GO-ROUND

POT O' GOLD

Work, approval, printer—work, approval, printer—such was the cycle of the Merry-go-round of the annual staff as it prepared this—your 1939 Pot O'Gold—which we hope will serve to augment DeVilbiss students' memories of the year. Industrious but inexperienced workmanship is represented on these pages—may you enjoy this record of persons and events.

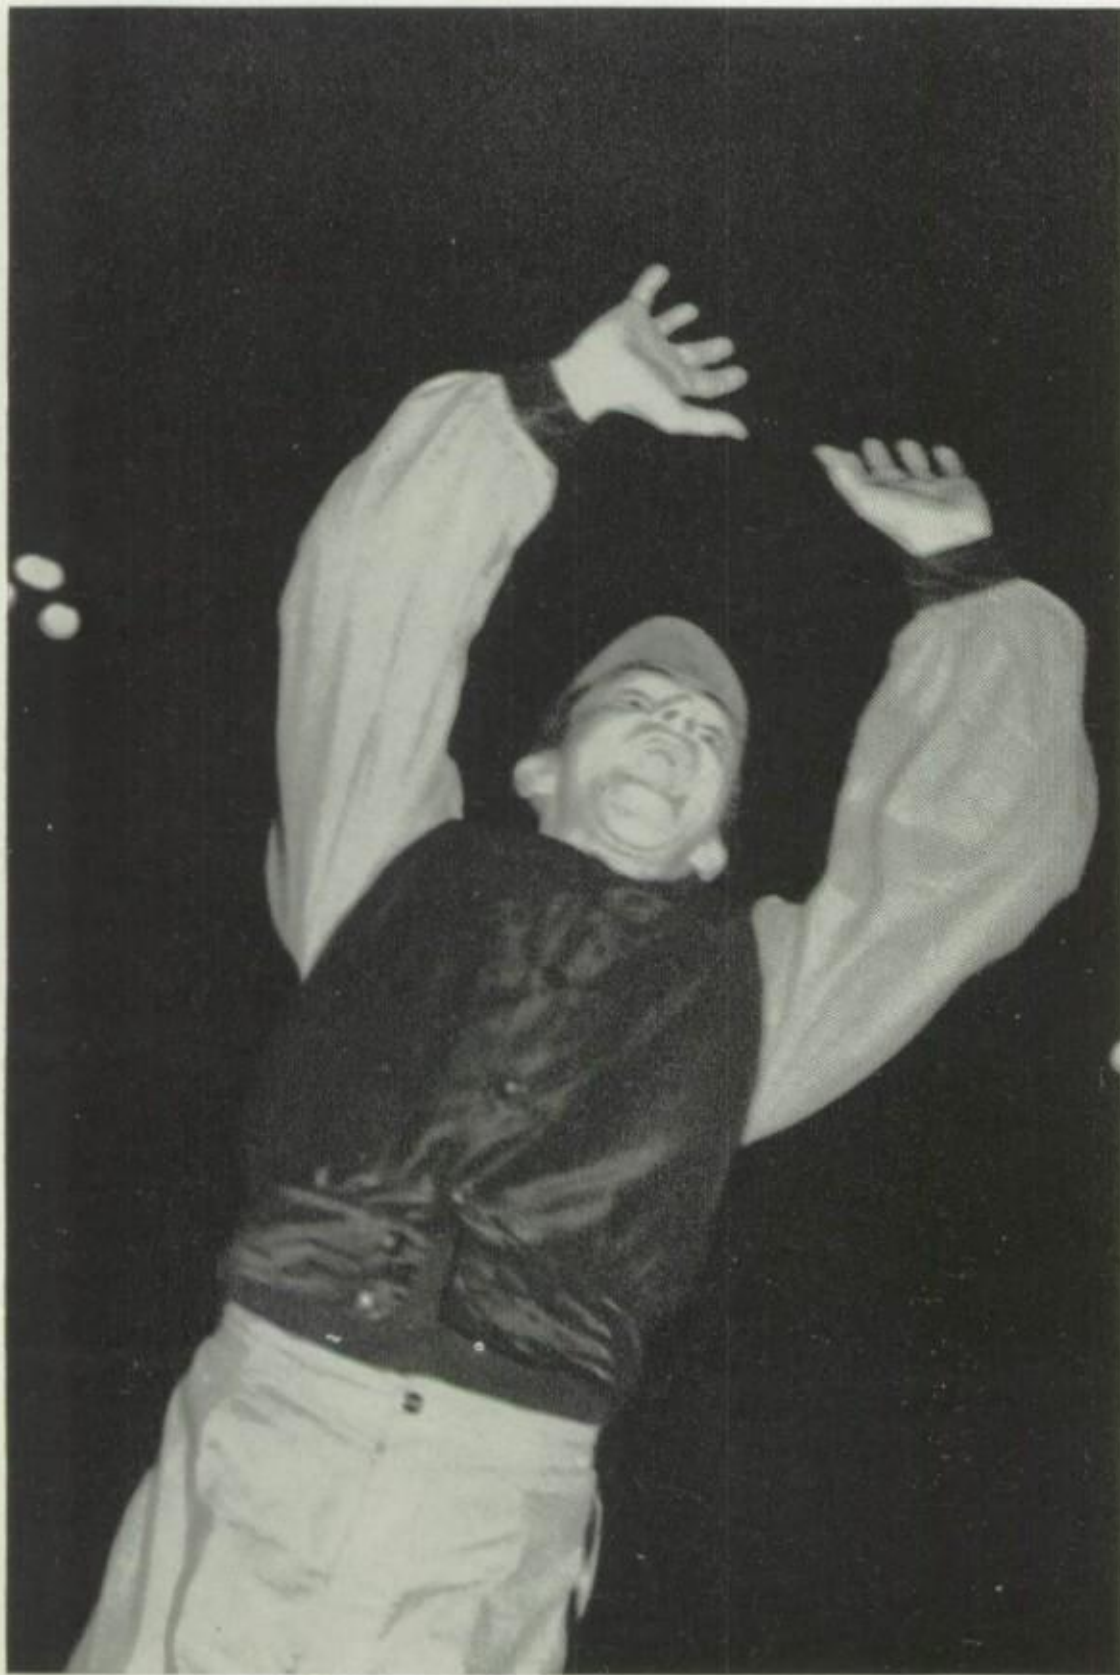

Margery Staler, the editor-in-chief, efficiently served to keep the wheels of the staff rotating, while the machinery was well oiled by Miss Ruth Smith, Miss Cooper, and Mr. Stalker, advisers. The Merry-go-round has stopped. But if our purpose is to be attained, the 1939 Pot O'Gold will forever keep alive in memory this year's events at DeVilbiss.

Athletics

Sportsview . . . vivid, clear-cut words drawing in firm lines pictures of games first played many centuries ago . . . games that will be just as absorbing generations from today . . . Long before the opening faint, wavering words of a sports' broadcast were sent out, a pastime crudely resembling modern basketball was played by Inca warriors . . . And even when television has become an everyday thing in the athletic world, interest in this game will still be keen . . . The recreations of any civilization form a graphic mosaic of its people . . . but to us it is the present which is most vital, most colorful . . . For can anything surpass the action, the tang of autumn air, and the brilliant colors which go into a composite picture of a Tiger football foray? . . . What excels the tense enthusiasm aroused by the crack of a bat or the thud of a baseball? . . . Perhaps some artist will one day attempt to create a great mural based on sports . . . an impressive mural it would be, with its racquets, baseball bats, swimming pools, cinder tracks, archery equipment, and balls of every description . . . If this painting is ever made, it will serve as a reminder of the action, the animation enjoyed by all sports' lovers . . . a reminder of the 1939 DeVilbiss Sports-cast.

INSIDE OF SPORTS

"Play by play"—the very phrase conjures up images of green baseball diamonds, white-lined football fields, and smooth tennis courts—all those games so familiar to every high school student. How many times through a program of music or speaking has the crisp voice of an announcer opening a sport's broadcast brought a tingling zest to ears jaded with less dramatic programs? As an outlet for self-expression, a test of character and skill, sports have taken their rightfully important place in the resume of every DeVilbiss student's activities. And so . . . the Pot O'Gold now brings you . . . the DeVilbiss Sportscast of 1938-1939.

ATHLETIC BOARD

Followers of Philipides

Although they do not receive the publicity that others may get, the DeVilbiss Athletic Board is the controlling body of the athletics of this school. The members of the Board have the important duty of selecting the coaches of the various sports. In guiding the matters of finance of the athletic teams they have a job which in itself would furnish constant occupation for several people. The policy which the school is to follow in athletics is also determined by this body. The awarding of the school letters is performed by the board as part of its many and important activities.

The Athletic Board is composed of three permanent members appointed yearly, and a secretary. The permanent members are: Principal Merritt Nauts, Athletic Director Norman Pollman, and Director of Activities Louis Mathias. The elected members of the 1938-39 board are Miss Carolyn Norton, Miss Mildred Schmidt, Mr. S. B. Emery, and Mr. Arthur D. Diller. Miss Twila Kuhman of the office staff served as secretary this year. With a fine record behind and an unlimited future to look forward to, DeVilbiss athletics is sure to go far under the guidance of such able people as these.

FACULTY MEMBERS: First Row—Miss Kuhman, Miss Schmidt, Miss Norton, Mr. Nauts. Second Row—Mr. Diller, Mr. Pollman, Mr. S. B. Emery.

The Athletic Board of this year is to be commended on the excellent job they have done in conjunction with the reduction of the debts owed by the DeVilbiss Athletic Association. They have bent their efforts toward a definite goal, and if the succeeding groups do as well, the Association will soon be in the black again.

COACHES...TRAINERS

1 9 3 9

HARRY RICE

To say anything more than congratulations to Harry Rice for his fine football team would only serve to add to the already sufficient praise which tells of his ability to bring out the best in the boys who are on his teams every year. Through his efforts as head coach of the football team many of the finest boys in the school have been trained to be better sports in the game of life.

OLLIE KLEE

When Ollie Klee took over the coaching reins of the baseball team this spring, he took on one big task. His past performances have shown that when the Athletic Board selected him they did a good job. His work on the football field and on the basketball court deserve all the credit due to a conscientious leader.

Lars Wagner in his capacities as head basketball coach and coach of lightweight football has shown his stellar capabilities beyond all shadow of a doubt. His basketball team had exceptional success this year, and the main share of the credit must be given to the pilot of the club, the coach.

As athletic director and track coach, Norm Pollman has done an excellent piece of work during the past year. It has become a habit at DeVilbiss to regard Mr. Pollman as one who always does his task well, and then drops the matter at that point. This guiding spirit behind DeVilbiss athletics deserves more mention than can be given here, but let it suffice to say that he is the most ardent supporter that DeVilbiss has ever had.

The favorite of the boys on athletic teams is the man who is in charge of the equipment and the training here at the school. Joe Collins has given generously of his time and labor to provide for the teams of our school the finest that there is in the way of uniforms and conditioning. Always cheerful, he is one of the best liked men on the campus.

The man responsible in a great many respects for the fine physical shape in which the DeVilbiss teams always are is Dr. J. W. Rae, "Doc" to the boys. From his office in Flower Hospital he directs all the matters with regard to injuries or ailments which affect DeVilbiss athletes. His patience is virtually unlimited, and he is always ready with a helping hand in an emergency.

Beneath his caustic exterior Bob has a heart of platinum. Even platinum is a poor thing beside the long tedious hours he has spent with a bunch of "cantankerous athletic weaklings," as he calls the boys from DeVilbiss. His treatments may be rough and somewhat painful, but the fellows know that anything Bob does is for their benefit. He has accompanied the teams on nearly all of the trips taken this year, and never fails to show up at the home games as well as those played at other schools in the city.

Faced with the loss of the entire forward wall and the toughest schedule in the school's history, Coach Harry Rice looked over the material which presented itself last fall. The only encouraging factors he saw, as he looked forward to the defense of one-third of the city title, were a light but snappy backfield, recruits from a championship lightweight team, and the fine spirit always shown by DeVilbiss athletes.

As the results indicate the gloomy outlook seems to have been buried by the bright, for Harry presented to the crowded DeVilbiss stands one of the finest teams to ever play for the school. From one hundred-ninety pounds of Jack Jewhurst to one hundred-fifty pounds of Louie Weber, the line outfought and outcharged its opponents. It furnished three men to the Honorary All-City squad: Jack Jewhurst, tackle, to the first team; and Whitie Ehrhardt, guard, and George Urschel, center, to the second team.

Behind the line the Tigers were represented by a fine aggression of runners and passers led by Dick Welch, Jim Vail, and Jack Kehle. Long runs and bullet passes were well-known sights to DeVilbiss rooters. Welch was given proper recognition as all-city halfback.

Further honors went to fighting Louie Weber, who was elected honorary captain at the end of the season, and to Jack Kehle, who was given the most valuable player award.

LIGHTWEIGHT FOOTBALL

With a squad composed entirely of freshmen, sophomores, and juniors, the Lightweights did much to indicate that DeVilbiss football has a bright future. Coached by Lars Wagner, the boys showed marked improvement with each succeeding game. The freshmen class has some sterling representatives on this team of Tiger Kittens; but, due to experience, the sophomores and juniors had the edge, and several of their boys were given a chance to show what they could do with Varsity ball.

Outstanding performers for the freshmen were Mann, Brown, Mosier, Chandler, Kennedy, Warner, Lantz, Alter, Smart, and Anderson. Numbered among the best that the Sophomore Class had to offer were Gall, Chenevert, Amberg, Yoder, Richards, Schweikert, Hardy, Millikan, and Vernier. The juniors were represented by Wemmer, Maidens, Mallory, Goodyear, Store, and J. Bennett.

The sportsmanlike qualities which characterized the Lightweight game will undoubtedly be a credit to DeVilbiss football for several years, and will serve as an example and incentive to the young fellows who will be coming to this school in the future.

THANKSGIVING DAY GAME

Entemann gets his man.

Led by a streak of lightning named Dick Houston, the Libbey Cowboys in this Thanksgiving Day Game capitalized on the breaks, and defeated the Tigers by the score of 20 to 7. The field, in miserable condition after several inches of snow, was a decided hinderance to many of the lighter boys on both teams. Cold weather, which failed to daunt a capacity crowd of 8,000, caused much fumbling of the ball, and the resultant misplays were fatal to the boys in orange and black.

The loss of George Urschel after the first play was much felt by DeVilbiss, as they were dependent on him to do the kicking. This loss resulted in one of Libbey's touchdowns when a kick was blocked and fallen on in the end zone. George hadn't had a kick blocked all year, and it seems reasonable to believe that he would not have begun in that game.

Jim Ross played a good defensive game throughout as an end, and he deserves much credit, as also does Carleton Baumgardner for his supporting work.

Jack Kehle attempting to escape several Libbey tacklers.

The pass defense of Jim Vail was the best displayed by him all year, and it was his work in the early part of the game which prevented Libbey from hurling passes in the later periods. Jack Jewhurst, Lloyd Entemann, and Whitie Ehrhardt were true to the name Tigers, and, on offense, forced great holes in the Libbey line.

The outstanding player of the day, however, was Jack Kehle, who time after time reeled off long gains, only to have them nullified when Libbey acquired the ball on downs and kicked out of danger.

Kehle seemed to be the only boy on the field who was able to keep his feet under him. His vicious tackling was the scourge of the Libbey backs, and his blocking was, as it was all year, well executed and thorough. His performance that one day was enough to make him remembered as one of the best ball players ever to appear in a DeVilbiss uniform.

A curious fact in conjunction with the statistics of the game was that the three Libbey touchdowns came within a period of three minutes. For those three minutes the Cowboys were exceptionally good, and they made use of Tiger mistakes twice to score, and then drove over another touchdown before DeVilbiss could rally. When the flurry was over the Tigers proved what they were made of, and kept Chip Houser's boys well back in their own territory. The statistics of the game presented DeVilbiss as superior in all departments except kicking and points.

The game gave Chip Houser a nice memory on which to retire, and we hope that he has much success in any other ventures that he may undertake. His fine sportsmanship will be remembered as long as athletics exist in the city of Toledo.

We at DeVilbiss salute a true sportsman, a good friend and a congenial foe—Chip Houser.

TIGER SCHEDULE

With one of the toughest schedules ever to face a Tiger football squad, the boys got off to a good start against an aggressive Cleveland Glenville team with an impressive 26 to 0 win.

In the second game Central gave the Tigers quite a battle, but the "Rice-men" over-powered them by the score of 6 to 0.

Followed by a strong contingent of DeVilbiss rooters, the squad won over the stubbornly fighting Defiance team to the tune of 14 to 0. The line blocking was very good, and the backs had little trouble in finding holes in the big Defiance line.

•

Foiled by the famous "Statue of Liberty" play, the Tigers were defeated by the inspired football of a fighting Scott team. The end play was outstanding with both Schmidt and Conklin turning in exceptional performances. The fans who made the trip over to Scott saw a battle they will long remember. The score, 20 to 7, does not in any way indicate the closeness of the contest.

•

On the long trip to Moline the team had a good time, but, in the game they did not enjoy themselves so much. Led by a flashy little back, Kolifitis, the Maroons outplayed the Tigers the entire first half, but in the second half the Bengals came back with so much power that the Moline boys just managed to escape with the 13 to 7 verdict.

The Bengals had too much force for the boys from Woodward, and defeated them by the score of 24 to 0. George Urschel's kicking was an outstanding feature again, as it was in nearly all the games this year.

Night Strategy

The Tigers avenged the one point victory that the Waite team inflicted on them last year by beating the "East Siders" 7 to 6. It was a hard fought game all the way, with the defensive work of Lloyd Entemann and Whitie Ehrhardt standing out quite prominently. Full-back Jim Vail turned in a very good exhibition of line plunging ability.

The big husky bunch from Portsmouth were too much for our Tigers, and they went down in defeat 13 to 7. Jack Jewhurst and Louie Weber were outstanding in the line for DeVilbiss, and their consistent work on defense kept the Tigers well in the running until the final gun. Kanney's catching of a long pass in the first half paved the way for the lone Tiger touchdown.

BERLIN TROPHY

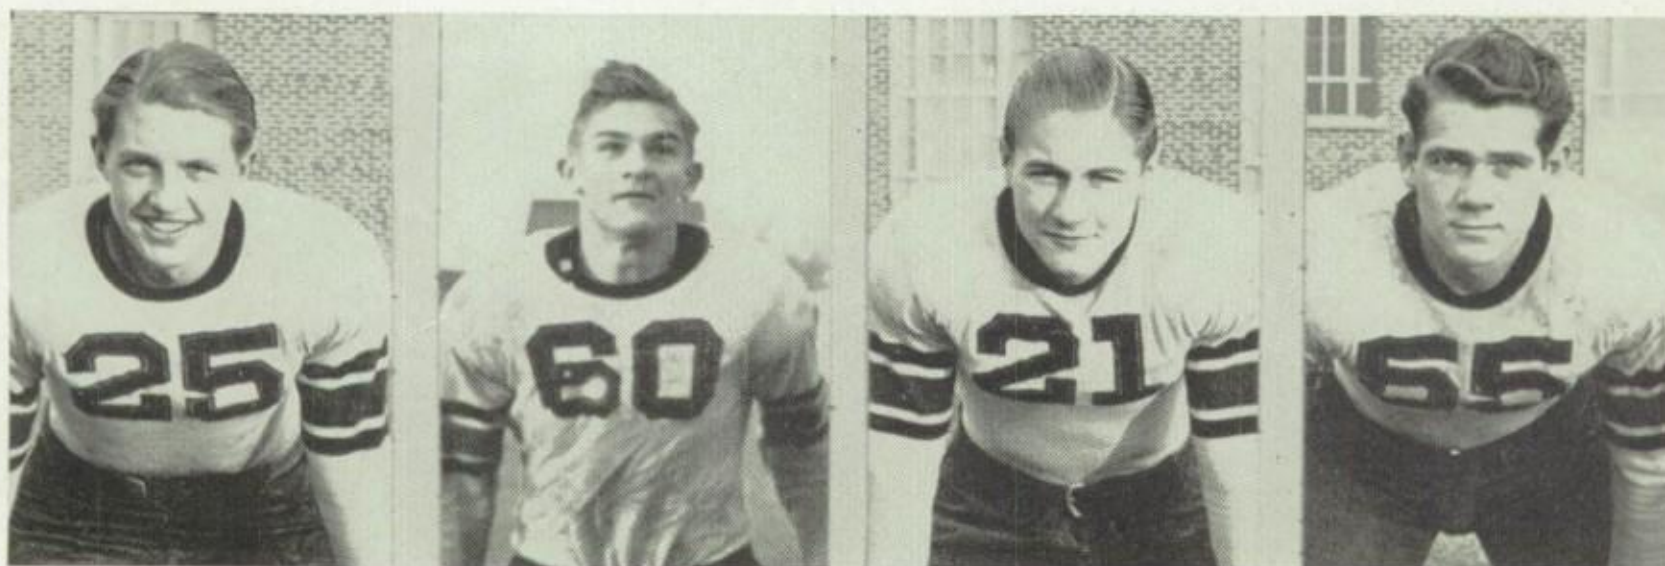

The highest honor which can be paid a DeVilbiss athlete is to award him the Berlin Trophy. This year the boy who was adjudged the most valuable player on the DeVilbiss football team was Quarterback Jack Kehle.

Throughout the season his performances were exceptional in every respect. His sportsmanship and love of the game were outstanding characteristics, as were his powerful offensive thrusts and sterling defense—truly a great guy and one worthy of the honor bestowed upon him.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Led by high scoring Bill Bennett, the Tiger Cagers finished fourth in the city race, and then went on to capture the much coveted Northwestern Ohio District Championship. The fine performance of all the boys on the squad were indicative of the coaching ability of Lars Wagner, DeVilbiss basketball mentor. The scoring punch of Ed Kanney and the unusual accuracy of Bruce Irving's long set shots, as well as the remarkable point getting ability of next year's captain, Bill Bennett, were contributing factors to the record for the 1938-1939 season.

The Berlin Trophy was given to Kenny Larsen in recognition of his individual floor work and scoring. Although he was not given much mention during the season, he finished in the ranks of the high scorers at the end. In the city race the Larsmen won 7 and lost 5. The record for the entire season was 15 won and 8 lost. The luck of the boys changed during the district tournament, as they won ball games by the margin of one or two points instead of losing them by the same as had been the practice.

In the State Meet at Columbus the Tigers were nosed out in an overtime game by Cincinnati Roger Bacon, the school which continued on to the finals before being eliminated. The game at Columbus was attended by over one hundred students and faculty members, and this, in a way, made up for the poor support given these representatives of our school during the regular season.

Coaching by Ollie Klee and Lars Wagner did much to provide a cheery outlook for the next several years of DeVilbiss basketball. The Tiger Juniors finished the season with 10 wins and 5 losses for a very presentable average.

Harry Messerly, who was promoted to the Varsity during the latter part of the season, showed great promise, as did such consistent performers as Schweikert, Roebke, Millikan, Vernier, Snedecor, Taravella, Byers, and Nichols.

The aggressiveness of the boys did much to overcome the faults which are bound to crop up in the ball of younger players. The clean sportsmanship was indicative of the brand of basketball to be played here in DeVilbiss in the future, and these boys surely merit the wholehearted support of the entire student body.

Lost . . . One city baseball championship. It was last seen in 1937. Any information concerning the recovery of this title will be appreciated by Lars Wagner, baseball coach, as well as the general student body.

In 1938, the Tigers lost the title for the first time in five seasons, during which period they had won thirty-six games and lost only five. It was their poorest record since 1932. The weakness of the squad was attributed to a lack of strength at the plate.

The team boasted of three "300" hitters: Don Ehrmin, with .375, Bob Harter, and Harry Messerly. This trio was closely followed by Bob Randalls, Dick Volk, Wayne Haeffner, and Jack Jewhurst. Harry Messerly, freshman shortstop, set a new field record when he knocked out two consecutive home runs against Central.

Led by Captain-elect Dick Welch, the pitching staff was the outstanding department of the '38 Tigers. Without exception opponents were held to small scores. In a league game Welch held the Waite Indians to one hit, and in another contest Scott went without a hit against his hurling. However, they managed somehow to get a run across the plate and won the game 1 to 0.

Letter winners of last year's team include Bob Randalls and Don Ehrmin, co-captains, and Dick Volk, seniors; Dick Welch, Bob Hills, Milton Runner, Willis Brown, Jack Jewhurst, Clarence Ehrhardt, juniors; Bob Harter, Omar Mourning, Bill Bennett, Jim Fruchey, sophomores; and Harry Messerly, and Dick Brang, freshmen.

Once again in 1938 the Tiger trackmen finished second to Scott in the city race and also in the district. Lacking a capable clashman to round out the team, DeVilbiss was forced to trail the Scotters at all times. The Tigers easily won the rest of their dual meets, opening the season with an outstanding victory over Monroe, Michigan, state champs, and coming back after the Scott defeat to snow under Waite's Indians.

In their larger meets the Tigers boast a first in a triangular meet at Bryan, and a fifth at Miami University. However, the thinclads were dropped to eighth in the Ohio Wesleyan Relays when the mile relay team was disqualified after having broken the tape in a brilliant race.

Outstanding individual performances were turned in by Captain Bill Stewart, hurdler, Les Keller, pole vaulter, Dick Curtis, miler, and the mile relay team composed of Cook, Urschel, Smith, and DeShetler. Other dependable point getters were Vail, Kanney, Kearney, Dunsmore, and Baumgartner.

Special credit must be given to little Les Keller, who became state champion in the pole vault.

Page Stadium track records were broken by Dick Curtis in the mile, Ed Kanney in the broad jump, Bill Stewart in the low hurdles, Les Keller in the pole vault, and the mile relay team.

Although the DeVilbiss Cross Country Team did not do so well as a whole, the performances of Captain Robert Black, Eugene Sowers, and Leo Krupp did much to encourage the new Cross Country Coach, Dick Curtis. Curtis was last year's District Cross Country Champion and one of the outstanding milers in the state.

With a squad composed mostly of seniors, the team will have to rely on the boys who gained experience this year to win meets in the campaign next fall. The burden will probably fall on Kurtz and Kreighoff. Coach Curtis bases his prediction for a good showing in the distance events during Track season on the performances made by these boys during the past Cross Country season.

Under the guiding hands of Lars Wagner and Commissioner of Athletics Bob Smith, the Intra-Murals went off as smoothly as planned. The boxing matches, refereed by George Urschel and timed by Ollie Leininger, were great successes. Wilfred Racker did an excellent job on the basketball court as he ran games off with clocklike precision. The champs in this sport were the boys in Miss Kratz's Home Room. The Inter-class track meet was won handily by the seniors paced by Captain Bob DeShetler, Philo Dunsmore, Jim Vail, George Urschel, and Bob Smith. The Table Tennis championship went to Louis Ostermann, a freshman.

The students of DeVilbiss are to be complimented upon the way in which they have supported the various activities sponsored by the Athletic Commission and the gym department. The participation far exceeded that of former years, and the enthusiastic crowds which turned out during the home room periods to watch the finals were indicative of the cooperative attitude which is being developed here at DeVilbiss.

GIRLS' ATHLETICS

Sport fans! This is your sports' reviewer, summarizing the events of the past year which were so important to all girls interested in athletics.

Remember the many afternoons enjoyed by the girls in the intramurals? And who can forget the meetings and events planned by the members of the Athletic Society, such as the time when two Toledo University hockey teams played an exhibition match for us, and we had hot chocolate and wafers afterward; and in the fall when we gave a handkerchief shower for Mrs. Laurimore, who moved to Washington D. C. . . . very appropriate it was, for it was soon necessary to return the gift handkerchiefs because of the descending showers of tears; then the annual coed ball, known this year as the "Gang Plank Gavotte," which took place in October . . . the costumes were most original, and the sight of the Queen Mary making her way over the gangplank provided much amusement . . . we soon observed that the waves at the end of the gym were so realistic that the portholes were constantly in use.

And remember when we acted as big sisters at the Christmas party given for the kiddies from the Lutheran Mission? We made a special order for Pere Noel to make a personal appearance, but we think there was some mistake in shipment, for, although we sent the wire to the North Pole, we are certain that Mr. Shaw'nta Claus came from the South.

We musn't forget also that early in the season we teaed off to the Mothers' tea, which was a hole in one with the dainty cookies; that at our skating party there were many who sat not on the sidelines, but in the center of the floor; and that the year closed as always with the impressive Senior Banquet, at which affair outstanding graduates were honored with the highest award given by the Athletic Society—the locket.

Let us pay tribute here to our new advisers—Mrs. Ardner and Mrs. Clarke, and to the ever-liked Miss Gottshall and Mrs. Sharpe. All athletes of remarkable ability, these teachers have entered into our sports as well as teaching us the fundamentals of them.

Since the feminine athletes of DeVilbiss cease to function as a body during the summer months, this is your sports' reviewer signing off until next year, when the Girls' Athletic Association will resume its activities.

FALL

The fall season begins with a bang—that is, banged shins, banged ankles, and banged toes. One or perhaps two days of hockey will teach the less experienced players that knee guards are an essential of the game. The greatest problem of early autumn is to check that vacation golf swing, and difficult this is. As breezes grow colder, mittens, ear muffs, ski-pants and slacks become the vogue. Hockey continues into the late fall, and often our games are interrupted by snow flurries. These do not, however, stop our play, for the contests only move more quickly.

WINTER

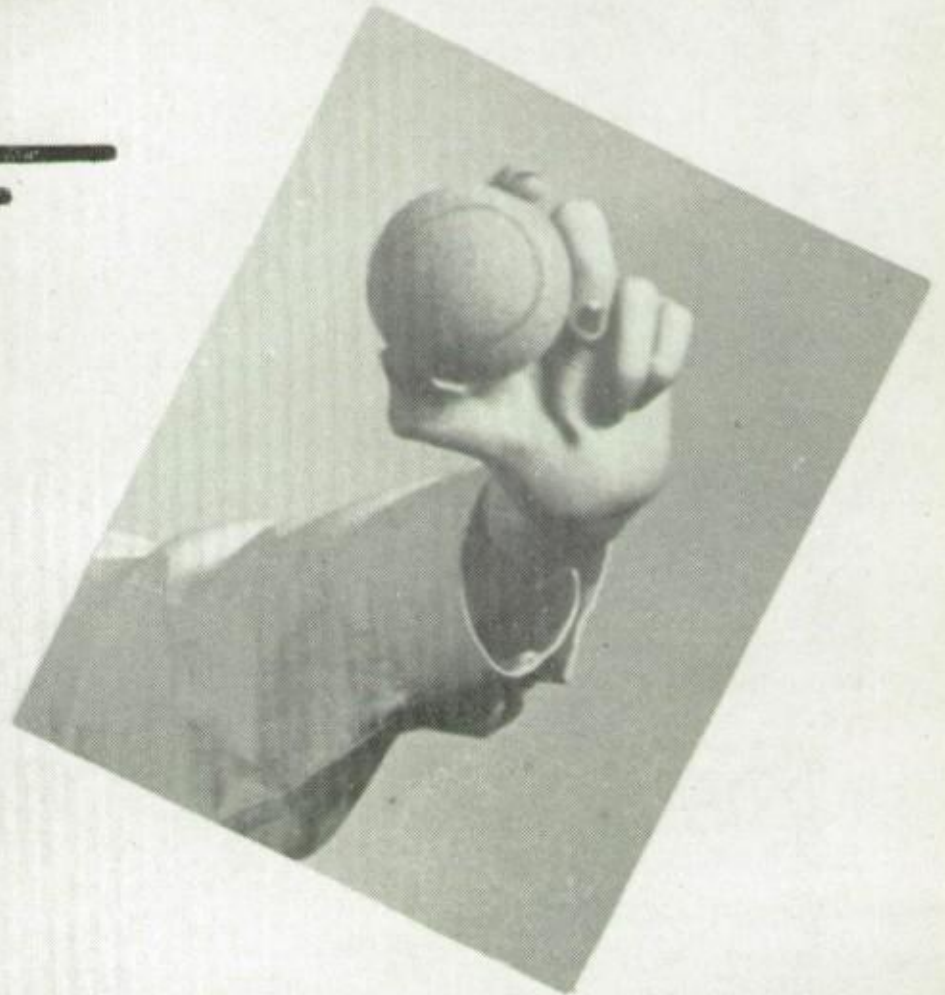

About the winter sport, basketball, centers the most of feminine interest, and it draws back the greatest number of girls for after school athletics. Often remarkable teams are developed, for competition is keenly felt. This season ends with the annual tournament held in the boys' gym, in which the triumphant group of each class displays its skill. This year we saw the Junior V team, with Susan Blanchet at its head, come through to the finish.

SPRING

With the spring comes a variety of sports, chief among which is baseball. Although the batting average of the girls may not be so commendable, vigorous playing is displayed on the diamond, for it takes as much energy to miss the ball as it does to send it flying. In spring sports we may also list volley ball, archery, deck tennis, shuffleboard and badminton. You can readily see that individual rather than team sports are emphasized in this program. Outdoor gym classes on the warm spring days are much enjoyed, and an hour in the sunshine indeed helps to make the last days in school more bearable.

April tenth began Community Chest Week, and the "Mile of Pennies Drive" . . . Although the school did not collect a "Mile of Pennies," we raised $724.40 to help the country-wide drive . . . April fourteenth brought with it the Remnant Rag, the Pot O' Gold dance . . . On April nineteenth was the Senior Mothers' Tea, followed the next evening by the Fathers' and Sons' Banquet . . . The Junior play, "The Butter and Egg Man", on the twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth hilariously, completed the April calendar.

Friday, May 12 . . . the seniors danced in glory at their annual Prom . . . The spacious Trianon was packed to the walls at this—the most successful dance given by the '39 graduating class.

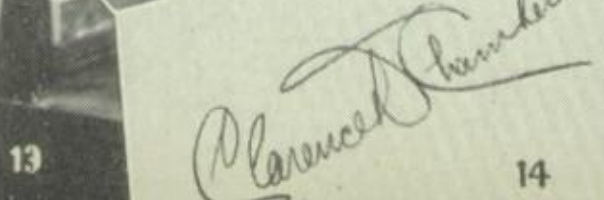

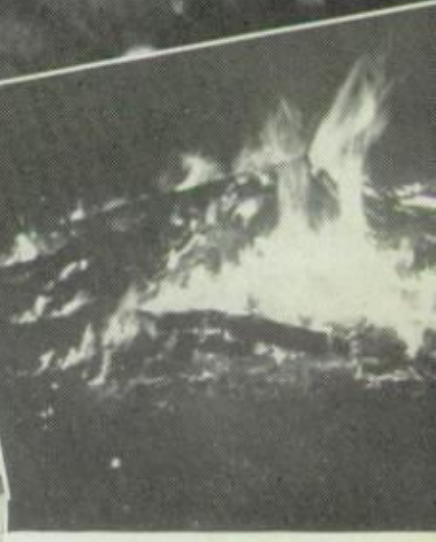

Crowded with events for seniors were their last two weeks of school at T. A. D. . . . Sunday, June fourth, Dr. R. Lincoln Long delivered the sermon at the Baccalaureate Service in Collingwood Presbyterian Church . . . The Senior Banquet, followed by the Farewell Dance, came on June eighth . . . Then . . . the lasting farewell . . . the day of graduation . . . June ninth.

DeVilbiss Is the Place Where:

Connie Rood dances and causes TAD's heart-aches . . . Ann Leonard eats ice cream and participates in all history arguments . . . Bill Kamke acts as general utility worker and nuisance . . . Warren Howell promotes programs over the ether . . . Robert Smith exercises his vocal chords . . . Jack Jewhurst is the fighting spirit of the line . . . Mary Ellen Chappuis charms as a relay queen . . . Jeanne Speyer honors us with her presence . . . Mary Dennen is an excellent social commissioner . . . Nedra Daley writes poetry and plays the harmonica . . . Ruth Thomas beats most of the fellows at golf . . . Barbara Wiese sings, and stars in the Junior Play . . . Charles Yager captains the Sophomore Class . . . Craig Dalton snaps pictures unexpectedly, and good ones, too . . . Philo Dunsmore wins "firsts" in track meets . . . Doris Weiser is a highlight in the Junior Class . . . "Admiral" Philip O'Neil wins scholarship examinations . . . Eugene Hunt masters the piano . . . Homer Bogart manages Junior finances . . . Marilyn Shields is a friend to everyone . . . Bob Hills busies himself on the stage crew . . . "Heinie" Warmbrunn commissions the clubs and plays a "deuce" of a good game of tennis . . . Louise Niles presides over the Sophomore Friendship Club.

And so . . . I remain . . . Your DeVilbiss correspondent, who is glad that from this school I can present to the world students with free and thinking minds, who differ greatly from those being released in other lands.

The staff of the 1938-'39 Pot O' Gold wishes to stimulate in the minds of the student body a feeling of individual responsibility for making the yearbook a success. Each student can best do this by seeing that he supports those firms which have advertised in this book.

Without the help of the advertising the book could not be operated on the basis which it is, and so we are deeply grateful to those who have advertised. Since these firms have shown their interest in DeVilbiss High School, it seems no more than right that we should unite as a student body and return this interest. Shall each one of us make it his duty to see that one or more of the following concerns are patronized in the near future?

ROLLIN GRAY—People who have cold baths in winter seldom have colds. But they have cold baths.

BETTY SHULL—Some parents are rude, but others have learned to keep still when their kids are talking.

MR. KIKER—Mud thrown is ground lost.

MR. FEATHERSTONE—Minds are like parachutes; they only function when open.

FRED GIPSON—Fat men are good natured, because they can neither fight nor run.

DICK KOPF—In politics the paths of glory lead but to the gravy.

GLORIA KEELING—Presents make the heart grow fonder.

MILFORD ROMANOFF—A passive verb is one of which the subject is the sufferer, such as "He was married to her."

SOME BIRD

PAUL BAEHREN'S ESSAY ON GEESE:

"A geese is a low, heavy set boid, which is mostly meet and feathers. His head sits on one side and he sits on the other. A geese can't sing much on account of dampness of the moisture. He ain't got no between-his-toes and he's got a little balloon on his stomach to keep him from sinking.

Some geeses when they git big has curls on their tails and is called ganders. Ganders don't haff to sit and hatch, but just eat and loaf, and go swimmin. If I was a goose, I'd rather be a gander."

it. "Bud was an awful flop," he said. "As soon as he entered,
everybody began hissing. They hissed until he was through, and they hissed him until he went off the stage,
they were so mad.
Then I came on."

"How did you come out?" asked Ginny.

"Oh, I went over big," said Homer,
"but right in the middle of one scene the folks got to thinking about Bud, and they started hissing him again."
